ABOUT ME

Songwriter, Producer, Vocal Arranger, Engineer, Videographer,

Singer, Record Executive and Visionary are a few of the titles I have been given. I studied Commercial Music at Virginia Union University in Richmond, Va. and have worked in the entertainment industry for more than 30 years. I have worked with artists from 'American Idol' and 'The Voice', artists signed to Wclef Jean and Diddy's 'Making the Band', as well artists signed to Clive Davis's J Records, Bad Boy and Def Jam. My work has attracted the attention of legendary songwriter, Carole Bayer Sager and super producer, David Foster.

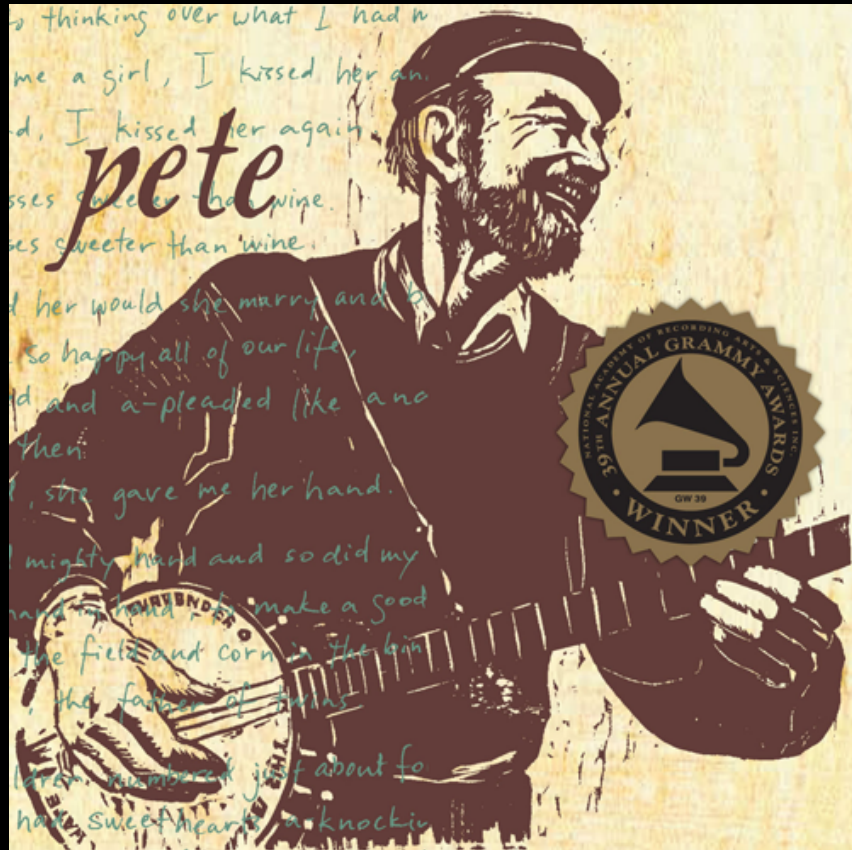

I've had the great honor of working with some of the industry's Jazz and R&B luminaries as a background singer. This list of esteemed artists includes Will Downing, Gerald Albright, Lalah Hathaway, Norman Brown and many others. With these veteran artists, I've toured nationally and internationally. I enjoy working in all genres of music and have a diverse catalog of songs. I have releases in R&B, Pop, Gospel Jazz and Country. My discography includes having worked on a #1 Billboard R&B/Hip Hop album as an engineer, while also providing background vocals on a Grammy winning Folk album.

I am passionate about music and the artists I work with.

Music is my life.

DOWNING LANDS FIRST R&B NO. 1

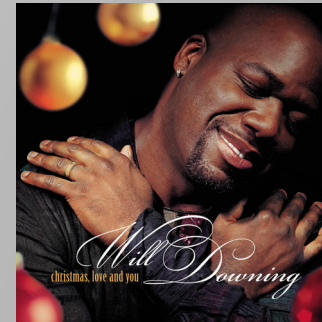

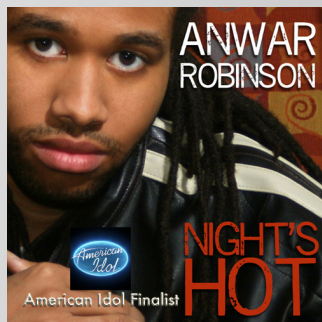

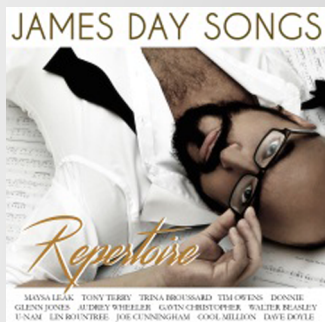

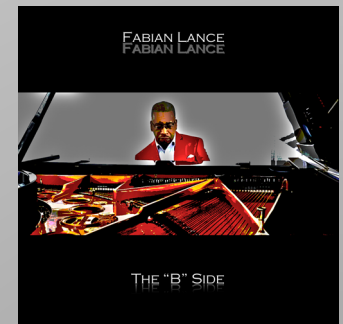

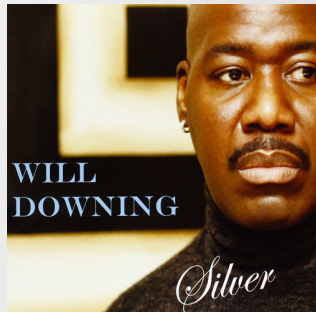

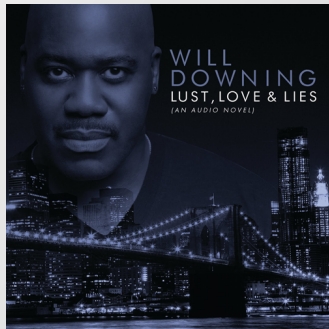

With a career spanning about 20 years and three No. 1s on Top Contemporary Jazz, veteran Will Downing claims his first No. 1 on the R&B/Hip-Hop Albums chart, where sales at core urban retailers give him the edge over Keyshia Cole's Greatest Career (p. 12). No. 11 and Player Circle (p. 11), who each sold more units at the entire SoundScan panel. The latter's "Supply & Demand" loosens Kanye West's grip at No. 1 on Top Rap Albums.
